In Appreciation

My greatest appreciation is for Carolyn Gray for her generosity on every level, spiritual commitment and her skillful diligence without which this book would not be in your hands. I also want to thank Geoff & Alice for their friendship and spiritual support. Thanks go to all my friends and student/teachers at the Self-Mastery Earth Institute and all those who chose to heal, evolve and gain from the teachings in the first book. I thank the Beautiful Many Angelic Guides, Ascended Masters and other spiritually advanced beings from the Andromedas, Pleiades/Plejaran and Orion systems who helped me to unlock and understand the mysteries of the universe, our ancient ancestors and UFOs, their origins and intentions. I also want to acknowledge my Earth Masters from Tibet, India, Asia and a grand old lady called Nature. My greatest appreciation is to the God within you which led you to this book and the beginning of an outrageous adventure into Interdimensional Mind.

Enjoy in love and light,
James Gilliland

Preface

The purpose of this book is to bring understandings to Humanity and the Earth in preparation for exciting times of tumultuous social, economic and physical Earth changes. It is also to prepare you for a grand reunion with your ancient ancestors, the star nations and the very God of your being.

These understandings are necessary for enlightenment, which means to be in knowledge of the whole truth—both sides of the coin. Knowing the truth of your past, which has made you what you are today, will break the spell of forgetfulness and allow ancient memories to come forward. Knowledge and memories have been suppressed lifetime after lifetime. This is the place where all the pieces of the puzzle come together for courageous souls who desire to wake up, remember their Divinity and their ancient origins, regain their power and take a quantum leap in consciousness.

Those who desire to remain in their comfort zones and social consciousness, clinging to the recycled ignorance of the past—the religious dogma, scientific dogma, superstitious beliefs and perpetuated half truths—will struggle with these understandings. Yet one by one as these understandings begin to unfold, as truth always does, the struggle will give way to enlightenment. It is unavoidable in the days to come.

May unconditional love, joy, peace, individual freedom and prosperity reign supreme. May this be a tool to get you there.

Cazekiel

From the Heart of a Prophet

After my near death experience, I received a gift of what can only be referred to as Interdimensional Mind. It did not come all at once. I had to work at it. It was as if a door had opened, yet I had to discipline myself to continuously walk through it.

I began to have experiences and receive teachings, which upon returning to this dimension caused me to rearrange my own consciousness. I had to let go of many primitive and superstitious beliefs and a lot of fear and unworthiness.

Cazekiel was the first during my near death experience to cradle me in his golden white light of pure, unconditional love and joy; “Bliss.” I found later he was referred to by other grand Masters as the God of Eternal Bliss, which definitely went along with my experience.

Cazekiel expanded my consciousness in several subsequent white light experiences, one of which was so expansive I gazed back upon the Earth only to see what looked like an emerald grain of sand. It took me two weeks to get my feet back on the ground and bring things back into full focus in this reality. Even after that experience, I still had fears concerning other spirits. I figured anyone else but Jesus was a spook.

My fears were honored, and Jesus began to appear in my dreams and meditations. This must be an immense babysitting job, because so many orthodox religions have set it up so he—and only he—must appear to so many ignoring a whole host of other Angelic Guides and Ascended Masters.

After years of receiving guidance and teachings from within, Jesus appeared one day arm in arm with another wonderful Master named Baba ji. He is often referred to as the Yogi Christ. I figured any friend of Jesus is a friend of mine, and Baba ji began to balance out my understandings concerning Eastern thought.

I also experienced Buddha along the way and even had a conversation with Mohammed. I found the consciousness and energy of each Master to be similar. They each delivered the same message in their own unique way, and I found that they often focused or had a little more expertise in one area or another. If one was better suited to teach or heal what was necessary in the moment, the others graciously stepped aside.

Just as I was feeling comfortable with my studies in Eastern thought, Jesus appeared again with another Ascended Master named White Eagle. This began my teachings in Native American beliefs, which again incorporated the same basic principles and understandings. There was a little more emphasis on the sacredness of all life, and a deep love and respect for the Earth.

One day during a mediation after the medicine wheel, I looked up, only to see Jesus presiding over the circle, hands outstretched, sending love and healing to all who would accept it. It finally drove home the message once and for all. After whacking myself in the forehead with my hand so I wouldn't forget, I blurted out, "It doesn't matter." A few people looked at me in confusion and I repeated, "It just doesn't matter." God is multilingual; a call to spirit is heard no matter how it is made. The only thing that matters is your integrity and your goals and intentions.

A grand revelation came to me. The names, images and doctrines have only created separation, division and war. Each Master had a deep and profound love for God, Humanity and Nature. Where did all this other stuff come from if there are no divisions in God and no separation in omnipresence? If in spirit there is peace and harmony, and they all agree, what happened here on Earth? Man is what happened, and man's struggle for power and control.

In ignorance, man has created primitive and superstitious beliefs which have left a long legacy of separation, division and war. The belief that God is separate from the rest of Humanity in all its cultural diversity, and Nature, has brought great suffering to Humanity and Nature. It has also lined the pockets of some very rich men, who in their unbridled greed and lust for power care nothing for Humanity and Nature. They are the ones who are perpetuating the beliefs in separation and division.

It's time to wake up. Every Master that ever walked this plane had a deep and profound love for God, Humanity and Nature. We can no longer afford the luxury of continuing to support beliefs which continue to perpetuate separation, division and war, or act in any way against Humanity and Nature. Rather than blame or give credit to wrathful Gods and tormenting devils, now is the time for accountability and responsibility for one's attitudes, emotions, actions and beliefs in the world in which we live, which govern our tomorrow individually and collectively. We must cease defending names, images, doctrines and borders, transcend cultural and religious boundaries, and focus mainly on the similarities, not the differences.

There are Universal Principles and understandings found throughout all cultures and beliefs We are more than our personalities and our bodies. We are multidimensional beings existing on a vibrational continuum expanding in consciousness into higher states of pure, unconditional love, joy, power and wisdom; "Bliss."

We are one race; we share one planet, and are all divine born of the original light. We are Gods. We have brothers and sisters throughout the universe, and we are on a journey and a process that is taking us home, a place where all dimensions and all life come together.

In service to the most high,
James

Journey Into Christ Consciousness

I Am Cazekiel

I am Cazekiel, God of eternal bliss. Who I am is unimportant. Who you are, where you are and where you are going are of greater importance.

I am neither higher nor lower than one of you. What I am is an example of your true nature, your God nature. The only difference between you and the greatest of all Gods is different levels of forgetfulness.

I and an unseen brotherhood are here once again in numbers and consciousness like never before in the history of Humanity. We are here to remind you of your Divinity, your true heritage and a journey you have chosen into the Christ Consciousness. It is our purpose to assist Humanity to understand, assimilate and flow with the new Higher Consciousness and Energy, which is creating radical changes in the lands, as well as in consciousness.

You are all being lifted into a greater sensitivity, a greater awareness of other planes, dimensions and those who reside upon them. In truth, you are much more than your body and personality. The one consciousness that encompasses all consciousness on all planes and all dimensions is within you. You are a multidimensional being existing on a vibrational continuum expanding into higher states of pure, unconditional love, joy, power and wisdom into the very Source of all life.

May you be one with creation, as we are one. These understandings are designed to show you where you have been, where you are now and where you are going.

Let the journey begin.

A Cazeziel Truth

Truth is always unfolding, yet along with a great explosion of light and knowledge comes a lot of debris, often consisting of religious dogma, scientific dogma, superstitious beliefs and reality as it is now seen. In the days to come, there will be many truths unfolding from many planes, many dimensions and through many prophets, channels and visionaries.

There are many levels of existence to the human experience, and planets also have separate realities. If you were to go to a planet in your third dimensional body and find no life and return in your etheric body in what would seem like a dream, there may exist a whole civilization. On their level, you may or may not be real. Everything is physical to the civilization existing on that level; yet to your level, it would be nonphysical once you return to your physical reality.

Many truths will also come from other civilizations which reside far off in some distant galaxy, with their perspective mixed in with the perspective of the chosen one on the Earth delivering their truth. It is often altered and boxed into the receiver's present belief system, yet they are delivering the messages to the best of their ability. The process involves filtering the messages through their own consciousness, which is necessary to bring it into this plane of understanding. Not only does truth depend upon the clarity of the one receiving the information, it also depends upon the level one is receiving information from and the intentions of the one from which they are receiving the information.

These truths will concern the origin and destiny of man, and many will take credit or blame others for many fortunate and less fortunate events. There will be hierarchies and “lowarchies” (you will probably be in the “lowarchy”) and many grand events that are going to either save or destroy you in the future. There will be religious truths, scientific truths, metaphysical truths, historical truths, your governments’ truths, manufactured consensus where often noble people are discredited or demonized by gossip and rumors through the media, and a whole host of other truths which will rise and fall as time marches onward.

Truth will always be evolving. Yesterday’s theories, which became today’s facts, often become tomorrow’s ignorance. So what is true? It all depends upon your reference point and your perspective. There is black history, white history, yellow history, red history, and it is all different according to the reference point of the one recording the event.

Truth will always be evolving.

There is even the female perspective and the male perspective. As this barrage of truth comes forward, it will get very confusing. So what does one do amidst all the confusion? It is going to be imperative that each individual develops a nondefensive, nonjudgmental attitude and allows others their truth. It is also important to develop your own inner sensitivity and feeling nature to discern what is true for you.

If a truth steers you away from your Divinity, let it go. If you are living in the past and that past is filled with bitterness and againstness and does not bring you joy, release it. If a truth does not honor the powerful manifesting God within you, tells you that you are mentally, emotionally, spiritually or genetically incapable of becoming one with GOD, or demands subservience to a higher authority somewhere outside of self, ignore it. If a truth is riddled with images of wrathful Gods and tormenting devils in which to place blame or to give credit, releasing you from accountability and responsibility from your own self-created realities, disempowering you, question it.

If a truth does not lift and empower you, honoring you as a unique expression of GOD with a divine right to free will and self-determination, find another truth. If a truth tells you that you don't have to do anything, that

If a truth does not lift and empower you... find another truth.

everything will be taken care of by some greater force, I would be highly suspicious of that greater force. There are teachers, healers and grander intelligences that will help you help yourself. They will work with you as long as you are going forward, yet they understand that to tell you how to live your lives and to save you from gaining the wisdom from the experiences your self-created realities bring to you creates devolution, not evolution.

Now that you have a greater understanding concerning truth, I will give you a Cazekiel truth to run by your own inner authority. There are a few truths we would like to address, which if you depend upon them in the days to come will cause you a very discomfoting experience.

No one is going to beam you up at the last moment, relieving you of the responsibility to prepare or do anything, so you can continue business as usual. Although there are those in the seen and unseen that have those capabilities, they are bound by what is often referred to as the Prime Directive. After all, what would they do with you? Do you think they would take you to their planet and allow you to do the same to it as Earth? Would they take you to another planet with your competitive warring nature and infect it?

Very few of you have the consciousness to sit in peace with a loving heart without trying to conquer them. Very few would abstain from war, enforcing your beliefs on others rather than using their knowledge for the highest and best good of Humanity and the Earth. The knowledge and power would corrupt you. These grander intelligences will be contacting those with open minds and loving hearts; "the meek." They will inspire you from a distance, and when you are mentally, emotionally and spiritually ready, and when you can meet them on even ground without fear or wanting to worship them, they will make their presence known to you physically, only because you have earned it. You must have the consciousness for it.

Another truth is that you will ascend, levitate, or the rapture will save you. Again, until that time, you can continue business as usual. If you accept this truth, you are going to have a rude awakening. There shall come a time when this will happen, yet it will be after the changes. You may ascend after death, when your body descends back into the Earth. You may also levitate when you leave your body under a pile of rubble after the great quakes. The rapture may come 500 feet beneath the water, after a great wave. Your body may ascend back up to the surface, while your spirit goes on to another plane or dimension.

Another very nasty trick some of you are playing upon yourself is thinking "GOD will take care of me," but not if you continue in denial and refuse to listen to even this God who is spelling it out for you. The God that is going to take care of you is the God within you that is telling you to prepare, if you want to continue in the physical.

There is the truth that there are alternate realities, and so those who believe that there will be no Earth changes will not experience them. Many also believe that by addressing the Earth changes you create them; and by merely saying it isn't so, the whole universe is going to stop its forward momentum just for them, because they are special. They need a vision beyond their petty denials. The alternate realities do exist, yet you are presently expressing on this frequency in a physical body on the physical body of Earth.

The reality you are expressing upon now has a destiny. It can be altered, yet many of the changes are necessary to balance and heal the planet. To be enlightened is to be aware of that destiny, why the changes are necessary, and what changes are necessary to heal the planet and be supportive of the Earth's needs. Pray for the best concerning Humanity and the Earth, and prepare for changes in the lands as well as in consciousness. You are entering exciting times of tumultuous change.

Lovingly and joyously unite and prepare. Do it in love of self, Humanity and the Earth, not in fear. The prophets and visionaries can alter destiny by reaching enough people to redirect their thoughts and actions. Listen to them, run it by your own inner guidance, and make any adjustments you deem necessary.

Still another truth is concerning a great light that is coming in your future, and a band of energy being placed around your planet which is vibrational lifting and is increasing the frequency and vibration of the Earth, and your bodies as well. There is a lot of clarification in this area. There are many truths concerning this event. There are many groups taking credit for it and many explanations concerning how it works, and how it is going to affect you and the planet. We are going to simplify it. It is not that complicated, nor is it as bizarre as many have described it. You know how that is—the more bizarre, the more names and images of lords, masters and hierarchies, beastly civilizations, etc., the more complex, the more copies it sells.

Although there are a lot of wonderful beings and spiritually and technologically advanced civilizations connected to this event, and a divine science is unfolding, do not get lost in names, images, civilizations or hierarchical orders. In other words, do not get so distracted and far out that you forget your own Divinity and your own healing and awakening. You are also GOD taking a stroll in the physical, and you must do your part in this drama.

This great light and the band of energy can be easily understood when you understand the nature of Higher Consciousness and Energy. Everything begins in consciousness. As consciousness is lowered in vibration, it becomes light. As the light is lowered, it becomes energy. When energy is lowered once again, it becomes mass. In other words, your body is coagulated thought.

It is best to see your body more as condensed consciousness. Your physical body is the by-product of an energy body, which is the by-product of a light body, which is the by-product of pure consciousness that extends into forever, or higher, more expanded states of consciousness.

*See your body
consciousness.*

The last frontier of identity is often referred to as your God self. It is a vibrational continuum. In truth, as we have said before, you are a multi-dimensional being existing on a vibrational continuum. Along this continuum you have a physical body, a mental body, an emotional body, an astral body, an etheric body (which is the soul or the perfect whole and healthy incarnation), and other higher bodies referred to as the Christ self and the even more expanded God self. What is happening is an invasion of the God self down through this vibrational continuum all the way to the physical. THIS IS THE BIG PICTURE. There are a lot of other little pictures in between.

When the frequency of Earth increases, the frequency of your body also increases. This increase raises the vibration of the Earth body, and your body as well. The Earth and you start moving towards an energy body. You become more sensitive and aware of other planes and dimensions, some of which have existed right alongside of you and have always been aware of your existence.

Thought also has a vibration, and as we mentioned earlier, mass is nothing more than coagulated thought. The lower vibrational thoughts such as fear, guilt, anger, greed, againstness, jealousy, etc., are being vibrationally lifted or amplified in this process. The Earth body and your physical bodies are filled with these lower vibrational attitudes and emotions to one degree or another. As the vibrational lifting continues, these lower vibrational attitudes and emotions will surface to be released and healed. This process is no longer an option; everyone is along for the ride. This is happening with the entire planet, and all physical life on the planet.

The vibrational lifting and healing process is occurring within your mental body, your emotional body and your astral body. This explains why there is so much turmoil and confusion on every level. All of the wounds, traumas and wrong conclusions from past experiences are surfacing to be healed within these four lower bodies.

The Earth is cleansing, healing and releasing all coagulated thought of a lower vibrational nature. She is addressing the areas where the consciousness of the past has psychometrized into the land, due to wars and other actions against Humanity and Nature. She is also going to address the lands in the present which are continuing in this behavior. The ruins of ancient civilizations which have been cleansed in the past will rise again beneath your oceans, and areas where the land has not been defiled will remain. Water has always been a great cleanser.

Your physical bodies will undergo many changes as they release and heal the lower vibrational attitudes and emotions which have coagulated within them. This is the origin of disease, which many enlightened doctors are starting to discover. All disease begins with an unresolved or unhealed attitude or emotion creating an energy imbalance which diminishes or disrupts the natural flow of energies. This includes the attitudes and emotions of your lineage which you inherited as genetic cellular memory. This too will surface to be healed.

All disease begins with an unresolved attitude or emotion.

When the cellular memory is released into your auric field, you will be feeling the attitudes and emotions of your ancestors. As the new Higher Consciousness and Energy continues to do its work, your bodies will also undergo a genetic alteration and rewiring, so to speak. This will be necessary to assimilate the new Higher Consciousness and Energy.

The lower vibrational attitudes and emotions in your mental and emotional bodies, when vibrationally lifted and amplified, will surface, and there will be a lot of dramas playing out. Individually and collectively, people will project these unhealed or unresolved issues upon others. They will manifest and magnetize people and events into their daily lives as divine mirrors and teachers of what resides within self. The action/reaction principle often referred to as karma will also be accelerated. The smart ones will own their experiences as self-created realities, take responsibility and heal their unresolved issues.

You are not only dealing with this life, but past lives as well. As the past life issues begin to surface, deep wounds, traumas and fears will surface; and to some,

*You are not only
dealing with this life, but past lives as well.*

they will have no apparent reason. Nothing in this life can attribute to the feelings coming forward. All wrong conclusions from past experiences, karmic ties and unfinished business from past lives will come forward to be healed and released. These experiences will eventually settle into the soul as wisdom, and it will be finished.

Eventually, the whole and healthy perfect incarnation referred to as the soul or etheric self will manifest, and disease shall be no more. Unconditional love, joy, peace, abundance and individual freedom will be all that is left upon this plane, which brings us back to God, the God of your being. That is how the process works. Too simple? It is that simple. You are entering the age of God. You can make it as difficult, complicated or sensational as you wish.

Another truth is that you are going to be saved by Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed, The Great White Spirit or Brotherhood, or some Cosmic Event that will fix everything. Again, like before, you can continue business as usual.

WAKE UP! You will save all of us a lot of work and frustration if you would listen to the God within you, take responsibility and save yourselves. This is your reality, your creation, and the re-actions to your actions. You are all powerful manifesting Gods walking through your own creations individually and collectively. Accountability, responsibility and integrity are in order. We are here to inspire you and help you remember your Divinity.

We are not here to save you. We are here to lend you some energy and inspire you to save yourselves. We are here again, as we have been before in times of great changes in the lands, as well as in consciousness. Those who heed the warnings and prepare spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically will be the seed people for a new age, an age referred to as the Golden Age of GOD.

There is a lot of work to do. It is going to be done along with you, not for you or to you. There will be Divine intervention. It will be as if the whole universe has come to observe and assist in the birth of a people and a planet.

You all have your part to play in this grand event. Keep going forward, be sincere in your commitment, and ask or initiate the awakening and healing process through prayer and meditation. As long as you act upon what is given without denial, selflessly and in the highest and best good of Humanity and the Earth, you will see a grand reunion. A new Earth and a new consciousness will come forward upon the land. Follow your heart and your own inner sensitivity.

There is always a lie in believe. There are always two sides to a coin. Only when the coin is standing on end and you can see both sides can you perceive the whole truth; even then it will probably lean in your direction.

Cazekiel

Earth Renewal

Earth Change Update

In the days to come you are going to see amazing things. How each individual perceives and experiences these things is up to them. You are going to receive a crash course in how attached and material-minded you are, how much you love yourself and how deep your denial is.

To be enlightened is to be in knowledge of the whole truth, not half-truths. It is to see GOD in all things, the omnipresent Creator in all Creation, which includes you on every level of your being. You are going to be tested in each one of these venues. There is going to be movement, change and healing coming forward from within all Creation. There is a saying, "GOD works through mysterious ways," yet when one awakens one can see more of the mystery and the way in which it operates.

You live in an action/reaction world known as the plane of demonstration where consciousness creates reality. As an eternal soul you chose this timeline on this plane of demonstration for a reason, and it is going to challenge you on every level. In these challenges you have the choice to greet them as a God or a victim, or even somewhere in between.

There is no way we can give you an exact description of what is to come individually or collectively, because much of this depends on individual and collective choices. A good example is if suddenly you awoke to the fact that war is in fact fulfilling one king or leader's desire for what another king or leader has, killing the other children of God in all their diversity. If you were to realize war has nothing to do with God, and the war profiteers are the only ones that win, and you choose not to participate, that choice completely changes your destiny. It also changes the destiny of those you would have inflicted pain, suffering and death upon, which you would be tied to karmically in future experiences. If a collective says, "No, we are not going to war," then that changes their destiny and the collective karma of a nation.

If everyone decided to forgive, release the past and move forward, honoring the universal principles necessary for a healthy society and environment, you would be on the path to Heaven on Earth. The same goes for the destruction and pollution of the environment. If one person decides to clean up their environment, gets the collective to work together and clean up their environment, and the collective demands their leadership to make this a priority, the Earth will not have to react to their actions and cleanse herself. The severity of the cleansing for Earth to continue to be the platform for life will be determined by the pollution and destruction.

There is a lot of help from higher levels to assist those who are choosing to be a part of the awakening and healing process. It is called divine intervention, and it is ready and waiting for those who want to release the past, forgive, and live a life of service to humanity and the Earth. These come in the form of Angelic Guides, Ascended Masters and Spiritually and Technologically advanced off-worlders, some of which are your ancient ancestors. As the veils between worlds become thinner in the days to come you will be seeing a lot of them, especially what you term ETs and their craft. Many are here to assist, some are here to observe which are coming on line to assist and there are some that have been here that were not for your highest and best good. They are being removed.

There is a negative grid composed of consciousness and energy which has stunted the evolution of Earth humanity, and within which the tyrants operate and manipulate through ceremony. These ceremonies are no longer effective, and the grid is being torn down and replaced with a higher frequency grid which no longer supports their base frequencies. Those aligned with competition, greed and the lust for power and wealth at the expense of humanity and the Earth are becoming very confused and dysfunctional and their world, along with their actions, is being revealed. The age of tyranny is coming to a close.

This timeline you have chosen which you are now on if you are reading this book has a destiny of its own—an outline, so to speak. There have been many prophesies about these times. The mountains will tremble and shake, the skies will become like sackcloth, there will be wars and rumors of wars, all of which are manifesting to one degree or another and will come to pass.

There is a science to all of this for those who do not believe in prophecy. The prophecies were given in the past by those who knew the science. Every 120,000 years or so there is an event that is cyclic in nature, and it is fast approaching. There were other events in Earth's history—great wars with technologies far beyond those of today's, meteor strikes and other cataclysms such as massive volcanic blasts, tsunamis, pole shifts, ice ages, etc.—that hit what is best called the reset button for many civilizations.

The good news is that you are all back in your ascending spiral of evolution, and hopefully you will get it right this time. The Earth will survive, cleanse herself and ascend to the next level, yet whether or not you finish this ride is a personal and collective choice.

The Earth will survive, cleanse herself and ascend to the next level.

We spoke in the earlier prophesies of erratic weather, drought in some areas, massive fires and floods in others. We spoke of a dramatic increase in tornadoes and hurricanes in number and severity. We spoke of the unprecedented increase in earthquake and volcanic activity, which has gone up 400% in numbers and severity. We spoke of the Sun and the mega cycles which are now upon you again with unprecedented solar flares and coronal mass ejections. What we have not spoken of to the masses is what is truly behind all of this, because most were not ready and it was too far off in the future.

Your solar system is entering a new place in the universe. You have been feeling the effects in your weather, earthquakes and volcanoes, as well as in the bioelectric fields surrounding the human and the Earth's body. The entire galaxy is going through a grand shift.

At the center of every universe is a black hole, spiraling out from which are the stars, planets and systems, such as the solar system in which you live. There are cycles in this rotation, and you are coming to the end of one such cycle that many refer to as the Great Shift or the Grand Cycle. The gravitational energies you are moving into have the potential to create a pole shift. The erratic weather, earthquakes and volcanoes above land and under the sea will continue to escalate as the solar system moves closer to this event. This pretty much makes war obsolete, and your energies could better be put towards preparation.

This is what the prophets were saying when they said that the mountains will shake and the land will tremble. The Sun will become dark as sackcloth, caused by volcanic eruptions, impacts from meteors and cosmic dust. Solar flares, coronal mass ejections and great gravitational waves from the Galactic Core have been the cause of these incoming meteors and cosmic dust.

The great wave vision given to many down under is not the tsunamis; it is a gravitational wave. A pole shift would cause the oceans to reel across the continents, which would rise and fall in the process. There are whole cities and temples built of stone to this day beneath your oceans that remain as a testimony to these events having occurred repeatedly in the past.

Before this event there will be many warnings. The erratic weather, droughts, fires, floods, increase in severity and number of storms, tornadoes, typhoons, hurricanes, quakes and volcanoes, some of which are in the oceans, will continue to diminish the coastal populations. These are not bad people being punished by God; they are bad listeners caught unaware of the obvious and continuous warnings.

You have the ability to know your future. You have the choice to prepare physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. You have divine intervention waiting to assist you in these endeavors. The choices you make will determine the outcome, yet denial is not a wise choice in these matters.

The Beautiful Many are awaiting your choice. Now is the time to choose to live according to the universal principles and understandings necessary for a healthy society and environment. Learn to share, cooperate, prepare on every level and be a blessing to life.

Make your own personal God connection, and act on the inner guidance. It is all part of the ascension process.

Heaven is coming to Earth. There will be a thousand years of peace, and humanity will once again live in harmony with each other and nature and join the rest of the universe in peace. Do not be in denial of what is to come between now and then on this timeline (the one this book, and you, are residing upon).

There are those conditions that in the activity of individuals, in the line of thought and endeavor, often keep many a land intact, through their application of spiritual laws in their association with individuals.

In Conclusion

So you have finished the second stretch. These truths, outrageous as they may seem, are all a by-product of Inter-dimensional Mind, something you all possess. You only have to awaken to your Divinity, your true nature, which is a multidimensional being.

You are an eternal spirit, capable of going backward and forward in time and recalling all of your past life experiences in the eternal scheme of things. You are not bound by time, distance and space. You are capable of traveling from the beginning to the end, to other planes, dimensions and universes, and returning back to your little third dimensional body on a planet known as the plane of demonstration, the action/reaction world called Earth.

It is a place where the forgotten Gods reside, many of whom are asleep and have chosen a personality with all of its erroneous beliefs and a body as their only identity. You have been loved and allowed to do so, due to a divine right to free will and self-determination, and the unconditionally loving nature of creation.

You have come to a point in evolution where divine intervention is necessary to ensure the continuation of not only yourselves as a species, but your planet as well. Thus, the awakening and healing process has begun. It is not being done to you or necessarily for you; it is being done through you.

The God within you is coming forward. You all have your part, and a mission to accomplish. Each in your own unique way has a contribution to make and must move forward and create the necessary alignment with your soul and its purpose. This may or may not have anything to do with one's present position, yet you will find that your whole life up to now has been in preparation for this event.

There has been purposeful good in everything, and it's time to use the wisdom gained in each experience to help you accomplish your goals. Be sure your goals are in alignment with your soul's purpose and not the programming of social consciousness, and all will go well.

The information that has been given within this book is to bring you current and prepare you for a grand reunion. The Gods of old were your ancient ancestors, advanced forms of Humanity from other worlds, which descended from Heaven. They sat with your forefathers, took wives, feasted and played some very important roles in your history. Some served Humanity, and some demanded to be served by Humanity.

The information given within this book is to bring you current and prepare you for a grand reunion.

Those who interacted in a negative way have long since evolved beyond interfering with primitive cultures and are now operating under what is known to you as the Prime Directive—a policy of noninterference with the evolution of planets and their inhabitants until they too are consciously aware as a collective that the universe is filled with intelligent life, and begin their journey into space.

You are genetically diverse Star Seeds which have evolved through thousands of years to a point where you are ready to reunite, not only with your ancient ancestors in the stars and on other planes and dimensions, but with the God of your being. The entire Earth is rising rapidly into a higher frequency from a base resonance of 7 megahertz to 12. Your bodies are following suit, which includes your subtle bodies as well.

Everything which does not align with the new Higher Consciousness and Energy is surfacing. Attitudes, emotions and actions which are not in the highest and best good for Humanity and the Earth and which do not align with the laws of creation will no longer be appropriate. The manifestation process and the reaction time to actions are being greatly amplified and accelerated.

Truth will come forward in every arena. The days of denial and deception are fast coming to a close, as well as the end of the tyrants. You are entering exciting times of tumultuous social, economic and physical Earth changes. This understanding is necessary to prepare the way.

Enlightenment means to be enlightened of the whole story, both sides of the coin. You must know where you have been to understand who you are and where you are going. It is the past which has made you what you are today; and knowledge of the past, your true heritage, will break the spell and allow the memories to come forward like a mighty river. Let go of that which no longer serves you, that which has become a burden and that which does not bring you joy.

Align yourself with that which is a service rather than a disservice to Humanity and Nature. Live for the spirit within you. Honor your feelings, for GOD is a feeling, and act upon those feelings.

You have chosen these exciting times. Go forward in love, joy and freedom. See the God within all Humanity and Nature, and open up to even grander realities. The universe is the playground of an enlightened one. Come join us. If you need a little help, ask!

I LOVE YOU; that is all.

Be kind to others and the Earth.

Bring no harm to anyone or anything.

It's that simple!

Bio of James Gilliland

James Gilliland is an internationally-known speaker, energetic healer, spiritual counselor, minister, visionary and author of three books, Reunion with Source, Becoming Gods II and The Ultimate Soul Journey. He is the director of the Self Mastery Earth Institute and ECETI, Enlightened Contact with Extraterrestrial Intelligence.

After a near-death experience, James returned with what he refers to as Interdimensional Mind; the ability to move beyond the body and the personality into other planes and dimensions throughout the multiverse. This includes the ability to experience different timelines and future probabilities.

He also received the ability to transfer powerful consciousness and energy to others, helping them in their own awakening and healing process. He is dedicated to the awakening and healing of humanity and the Earth, as well as researching and ushering in new healing and Earth-friendly energy technologies.

James has appeared numerous times on the Coast to Coast AM Show, as well as many other radio and television programs, and hosts his own weekly radio broadcast, called "As You Wish." He has extensive documentation of the appearance of Spiritual Masters and other spiritually advanced extra- and ultra-terrestrial Off-World Visitors. His articles and UFO reports have been regularly featured by major UFO information outlets

James lives at the Sattva Sanctuary, a 70-acre mountain retreat at the base of Mt. Adams in Trout Lake, Washington, where he hosts Science, Spirit and World Transformation conferences and does private healing sessions. James may be reached at (509)395-2092 or ufojames@eceti.org.

Self Mastery Earth Institute

Mission Statement

The Self Mastery Earth Institute is located at the base of majestic Mount Adams in southern Washington. The Sanctuary is well known by sensitives and adepts for its spiritual energies that enhance and accelerate the awakening and healing process. It is one of many sacred power spots, a vortex where the veils between worlds are very thin. Access to higher planes and dimensions comes easy at the Sanctuary.

The Self Mastery Earth Institute is a Gnostic School of Wisdom. It is a blend of East and West, where Science and Spirit come together in dedication to the awakening and healing of Humanity and the Earth. We are eclectic in nature, transcending all religious and cultural barriers.

We live by the Universal Principles and Understandings necessary for a healthy society and environment—Principles like Universal Peace, Brotherly/Sisterly Love, Individual Freedom and Prosperity, Equality and a strong reverence for life, honoring the Creator within all Creation. These Principles and Understandings promote and inspire love, joy, peace, unity, individual freedom and prosperity for all.

The devolution of society with an escalation of war, crime, disease, poverty, pollution and destruction of the environment, along with epidemic greed, are all byproducts of living outside of these Universal Principles. Now, more than ever, is the time for these ancient Universal Principles and Understandings to resurface and be walked with impeccable integrity within all institutions—religious, business and political—if we are to continue as a civilization and take the upward spiral of evolution.

We honor the divine right to free will and self determination, and believe each individual has his or her own unique purpose for incarnating on Earth. It is the responsibility of each individual to make his or her own personal God, Spirit, Creator connection and fulfill their own unique purpose. We can only offer understandings, tools and techniques to help those who choose on their path to self awareness.

We are not a cult, nor are we a religion. We are a place where spiritually like-minded people of all faiths gather in peace with open minds and loving hearts to explore an infinite world of possibilities.

These are our goals and intentions, as well as creating a working example of a self-sufficient, Earth user friendly, center of the Highest Consciousness and Energy. We also sponsor authors, lectures and workshops, and hold ongoing services, ceremonies and classes at the center. See the schedule of events on our web site at www.eceti.org.

Spiritual Transpersonal Release

One of the most powerful therapies on the planet is the Spiritual Transpersonal Release Technique. This was once known as Retro Clearing, endearingly referred to as a spiritual roto-rooter. It is a technique that transfers powerful consciousness and energy to the recipient, allowing them to heal, quickly and gracefully, any mental or emotional wounds, traumas or wrong conclusions from past experiences. This includes past lives and any unseen negative influences as well.

Many of our fears and phobias often do not have any base of origin in this life. This is when past lives have to be taken into account. Where does a child prodigy obtain the ability to play beautiful music or access knowledge beyond their present understanding? Where does the inspiration come from in all great works of art or science?

We are more than the sum total of this life's experiences. Our mental and emotional bodies are affected by unseen spiritual forces in positive and negative ways. It is time to open to the positive and heal the negative.

Hawaii Conference 2006

Extraterrestrial Civilizations and World Peace

by James Gilliland (DVD)

The Extraterrestrial Civilizations and World Peace presentation on the Big Island of Hawaii received a standing ovation. The presentation covers extraterrestrial, ultradimensional off-world visitors, orbs, and has awesome photos and video of the ships coming to the Self Mastery Earth Institute.

James is touted by his peers as a top authority and intuitive contact for our galactic brethren. Fully documented contact has been ongoing for over ten years, and in the question and answer period James was asked, "When will the ships appear?" He said to look to the west at 11:00 that very night. At 11:00, blue orbs began flashing in the west, followed by a transparent ship with lights flashing around the exterior, witnessed by many.

The Ultimate Soul Journey – An Awakening to Spirit

James Gilliland's Autobiography

An interdimensional journey with Angelic Guides, Ascended Masters, The Mary Connection, NDEs, Past Lives, Nature Spirits, Orbs, Light Spheres, Bigfoot, UFOs, and The Source.

The Ultimate Soul Journey was not written for self-aggrandizement, but to share a path that many have taken, and bring understanding to some events in my life that were not only loving and blissful, but at times extremely challenging. In retrospect, I would not change a thing, for the darkness has become a stimulus and teacher. When life rolls boulders it is best to build stairs, keeping one's eye on heaven. I would like to express heartfelt gratitude for everyone who made this dream possible. Available in mid-2007.
